PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS VOLUNTEER AT GILDA'S CLUB
NAPO-GPC MEMBERS SUPPORT NONPROFITS FOR "GET ORGANIZED MONTH"

January is GO (Get Organized) MonthSM, and Philadelphia-area Professional Organizers were ready to help local nonprofits get the job done!

Members of the National Association of Professional Organizers – Greater Philadelphia Chapter (NAPO-GPC) volunteered their time and organizing talents to the Gilda's Club South Jersey in Linwood, NJ, on January 24, 2011.

"It felt amazing to volunteer out time and organizing abilities to a charity that has done so much for so many," says NAPO-GPC member and GO Event Coordinator Joanne Rinaldi of Linwood.

Volunteers included Rinaldi and Professional Organizers Alix Longfellow of Cape May, NJ, Sara Long of Brookhaven, PA, and Carla Shipman of Middletown, DE.

Gilda's Club is named in honor of comedian Gilda Radner who was diagnosed with ovarian cancer in 1986. Gilda's Club South Jersey offers support groups, lectures, workshops and social events as a supplement to medical care in a warm and welcoming home-like setting at 700 New Road in Linwood, NJ. Visit gildasclubsouthjersey.org for more information.

NAPO-GPC is a nonprofit member organization whose missions are to educate members, to promote the highest standards of ethics and professional competence, and to raise public awareness regarding the benefits of organizing. GO (Get Organized) MonthSM in January is a national promotion developed by NAPO. NAPO-GPC members also appeared on Good Morning America and will volunteer at Impact Thrift Store in Pennsylvania and NAMI in Delaware.
